La FAYETTE
The History and Genelalogy of
Fayette County, Pennsylvania

Consolidated by Tom Strong from the tables of contents of each issue.
June 23, 2026

La Fayette was published by William L. Iscrupe (editor) and Shirley G. McQuillis (associate editor) of Southwest Pennsylvania Genealogical Services. Publication ran from 1981 with Volume 1 to 1994 when it stopped abruptly in the middle of Volume 13. Typically 4 issues were published per year, Volume 7 had a 5th issue to get the publication back on schedule. Many articles continued into subsequent issues until the entire item was printed. A card was included in the last (Volume 13 Number 2) issue saying:

Dear Friends,

06 Oct 1994

We apologize for the delay in this issue of LAFAYETTE. Doctors recently discovered that Shirley, my wife and associate editor, had a brain tumor complicated with hydrocephalus (water-on-the-brain). As she had no symptoms normally associated with either condition, the news came as quite a surprise to everyone. Her neuro-surgeon said she must have a guardian angel watching over her, as either condition, gone undetected, could have proved fatal.

Shirley is doing well thus far, but it will take some time till she recovers. Since this is a family business, and there is no one who can replace her, it will take us some time to get the magazines "back up to speed". Your third issue (October 94) will also be late in reaching you, but will be on the way as soon as humanly possible.

Thank you for your patience and prayers.

Cordially,

William L Iscrupe
Editor & Publisher

The indexes include all article titles (as shown in the articles, sometimes adjusted for consistency) as well as topics or locations when they do not start the title. The page numbers will be something like "v7n3p1" indicating Volume 7, issue number 3, page 1.

The tables of contents are shown in the order they appear in each issue. The table of contents always appeared on a page facing the inside front cover, items on the inside front cover are indicated here as page 0. The verso of the table to contents page contained publication information, next to page 1 of the issue. The inside back cover pages were not numbered, they are assigned the next page number herein to avoid "Inside Back Cover" as a page number.
